

Terms and Conditions of Priority Ticket Offer 2014/15

In consideration of Cricket Australia granting you, as an Eligible ACF Member, the opportunity to participate in the Priority Access Ticket Offer for the 2014/15 international season, you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions.

1. Definitions

ACF Gold Priority Access is the access period for Eligible ACF Members whose purchasing of tickets during the ACF Priority Ticketing Period with the same ACF membership number, in any two out of the last three years (that is, in any two of 2013/14, 2012/13 and 2011/12) of international cricket played in Australia, qualifies them for access to purchase tickets from 29 July 2014. The identification of ticketing purchase is based on information provided by the relevant ticketing agencies and relies on ACF members having used the same ACF membership number when booking. Access to this group is at the sole discretion of Cricket Australia.

ACF Membership Number means the verification number to be provided to members of the Australian Cricket Family and which will be required to participate in the Priority Booking Period.

ACF Priority Access is the access period for Eligible ACF Members who do not have access to the ACF Gold Priority Access (that is, who have not purchased tickets during the ACF Priority Ticketing Period in the two out of the last three years of international cricket played in Australia, but are an Eligible ACF Member). Access to tickets for this group begins on 30 July 2014.

Administration Fee means a fee to be retained by Cricket Australia for the purpose of reimbursing Cricket Australia for any costs incurred in processing a refund of monies paid for Tickets which are cancelled due to a breach of these terms and conditions.

Australian Cricket Family means registered members of <http://www.cricket.com.au/acf/> and people who have registered for the Australian Cricket Family via mail.

Cricket Australia means Cricket Australia (ACN 006 089 130) of 60 Jolimont Street, Jolimont, 3002, Victoria.

Direct Allocations means tickets to a Match provided by Cricket Australia to meet its contractual, protocol and operational obligations, including to corporate partners, players, hospitality, media and dignitaries or retained for the general public on sale date.

Eligible ACF Members means Australian based members of the Australian Cricket Family who hold an Australian residential address as their ACF profile, who have registered as a member of the Australian Cricket Family on or before 5:00PM AEST Sunday 20 July 2014.

International Team means (a) in the case of Test Matches and One Day Internationals, the senior men's team from any country recognised by the ICC to participate in official matches of that kind and (b) in the case of Twenty20 Matches, the primary male team from any country recognised by the ICC to participate in official matches of that kind. For the avoidance of doubt, in respect of Australia, the International Team is the Australian senior men's team.

Match means each Test Match, One Day International and Twenty20 Match classified by the ICC as such and played in Australia during the 2014/15 international cricket season between 5 November 2014 and 1 February 2015.
