- No tickets will be made available to you until full payment has been received. Ticketmaster will send you an email once full payment has been made which includes a link for you to download your tickets via Ticketfast. Ticketmaster Advanced Terms of Use

Your Consent to these Terms, and How these Terms may be Amended

You are currently visiting a section of the Ticketmaster Advanced's web site, or reviewing an e-mail, that features advanced ticketing transaction technologies and services (such section of the Ticketmaster Advanced's web site, e-mail, technologies and services, are collectively referred to as the "Advanced Services"). Some of the Advanced Services are provided by the Ticketmaster Advanced, and some of the Advanced Services are provided by Ticketmaster. The following are the "Terms" that govern your use of the Advanced Services. While using the Advanced Services you may see links that, when clicked on, will take you to Internet sites operated by the Ticketmaster Advanced, Ticketmaster or others that are not part of the Advanced Services. Please review the terms of use appearing with those sites and services, as those terms will govern those sites and services instead of these Terms. If there is a conflict between these Terms and any other terms, then these Terms shall govern.

By using the Advanced Services, you expressly agree to be bound by and comply with these Terms, and all applicable laws and regulations, and also agree to be bound by any additional non-conflicting terms or conditions on which you have or will agree with Ticketmaster L.L.C. ("Ticketmaster") or the Ticketmaster Advanced. These Terms shall constitute a valid, binding and enforceable legal agreement among you, the Ticketmaster Advanced and Ticketmaster. There shall be no oral or implied agreement between you and Ticketmaster, you and the Ticketmaster Advanced, or you, Ticketmaster and the Ticketmaster Advanced that shall be binding or enforceable, and all parties agree not to claim that there is.

Ticketmaster reserves the right to change these Terms at any time, by posting a link to, or posting, the new Terms where the Advanced Services are provided. Such change shall be effective with respect to you commencing the first time that you visit this web site or otherwise use the Advanced Services after such changed Terms have been posted. Please review the Terms periodically to see whether they have changed.

Special Terms Applicable to Specific Advanced Services

All of these Terms shall apply to the use of each of the Advanced Services. However, also included in these Terms under the heading "Specific Additional Terms Governing Specific Advanced Services" are additional provisions that also govern your use of certain of the Advanced Services.

Violations of the Terms

If you violate the Terms, you may be prohibited from using the Advanced Services now or in the future, your transactions, distributions, deliveries, credit authorisations, payments, payment receipts, registrations, log-ins, ticket forwards, ticket postings, ticket sales, ticket purchases, ticket forwarding receptions, ticket orders, group management or participating or ticket management (any of the foregoing, or any other activities or transactions for which you use the Advanced Services, an "Activity"), or season, package, group or other tickets, may be cancelled, set-offs and debits may be taken against your accounts and credits and payments that would otherwise be owed to you, and appropriate legal actions may be taken against you.

Registration; User Names and Passwords

You may need to register with the Advanced Services, or receive a username and password, in order to use certain Advanced Services. You are solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your username and password and are fully responsible for all Activities that occur under your username and password, regardless of whether undertaken by you or undertaken by someone who has received your username and password. If the Advanced Services are unable to verify or authenticate any information you provide during any Activity, you may be prohibited from using the Advanced Services.

Responsibility for Allowing Others Access to Tickets and E-mail Transmission Errors

Many of the Advanced Services use e-mail and web site downloads to deliver electronic tickets which can be printed out, copied, saved and forwarded to others, either physically (i.e., after being printed out) or electronically. Despite the fact that multiple copies and print-outs of the same ticket can be created, only the first copy or print-out that is presented and scanned for admission at a venue will in fact be valid for admission; once that scanning occurs, all other copies and print-outs of that ticket will no longer be valid for entry. Accordingly, you agree to be solely responsible for safeguarding all tickets (and all pass codes, Internet addresses, e-mails and other places and means where tickets can be obtained) with great care, and you agree that if a ticket is copied, reprinted or forwarded to another person, or another person is given access to a ticket, neither Ticketmaster Advanced, Ticketmaster nor anyone else will have any liability or responsibility for any print-outs or copies of the ticket not being valid for admission due to the previous admission scanning of another print-out or copy of the same ticket. Similarly, you agree that you will be solely responsible for distribution errors caused by you providing an inaccurate e-mail address, for lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed tickets, and for lost, stolen, deleted, improperly addressed, forwarded or misdirected e-mails linking to Internet sites (or pass codes or Internet addresses) where tickets are accessible.

Authorisation to Cancel a Ticket

By instructing the Advanced Services to forward, distribute, transfer or sell a ticket, you authorise Ticketmaster and the Ticketmaster Advanced to issue to the recipient a valid ticket and to cancel and invalidate your ticket for the same seat at the same event. You agree that you will not sell, convey, give away, forward, otherwise distribute, try to use, or take any action that directly or indirectly allows to be cancelled or invalidated, any sold, conveyed, forwarded, otherwise distributed or otherwise cancelled or invalidated ticket.

TicketFast

Many of the Advanced Services, such as Group Tickets, Season Tickets and purchasing tickets from Season Ticket Holders use TicketFast. To read more about how TicketFast works, and hardware and software requirements for the recipient to read and print TicketFast tickets, click here.

Cancelled or Postponed Events

Occasionally, events are cancelled or postponed by the Ticketmaster Advanced or venue due to weather conditions or situations affecting the performers, players, other personnel or staff or the audience. Please review the Specific Additional Terms Governing Specific Advanced Services below for provisions applicable to cancelled or postponed events.

Resale

The Advanced Services cannot be used to resell tickets that have already been sold, distributed or forwarded through the Advanced Services.

Title; Role of Ticketmaster Advanced and Ticketmaster

All of this paragraph is subject to those parts of these Terms applicable to refunds and credits for cancelled or postponed events. All rights and obligations with respect to a ticket pass upon completion of a group ticket distribution (unless properly cancelled through the method described below), forward, purchase or sale transaction. For purposes hereof, "completion" shall occur (a) for a group ticket distribution transaction if the recipient pays for the ticket then upon the payment for a group ticket by the recipient, or instead if the group manager pays for the ticket then upon the use of the ticket to enter an event (or if not presented to enter an event, then upon the ticket's event start time), (b) for a season ticket forwarding transaction when the Advanced Services sends (and before the recipient receives) the forwarded ticket, and (c) for a purchase or sale transaction when the Advanced Services sends (and before the recipient receives) the ticket in the case of electronic delivery, or when the Advanced Services deposits the ticket with the mail or a delivery service in the case of delivery of a paper ticket provided that the purchaser will not have the right to cancel a purchase or deliver once the purchaser has made an order (provided that Ticketmaster will have the right to allow such a cancellation in Ticketmaster's sole discretion). Throughout these processes, neither Ticketmaster nor the Ticketmaster Advanced will ever take title to the ticket. Title will pass directly from the group manager to the ticket recipient in the case of a group ticket distribution (unless the recipient, and not the group manager, is the purchaser of the ticket, in which case title will pass directly from Ticketmaster Advanced to the recipient, because the group manager will never have had title), directly from the ticket forwarder to the person to whom the forwarder has forwarded the ticket in the case of season ticket forwarding, and directly from the seller to the purchaser in the case of a sale transaction. Further, Ticketmaster is not the agent of any party other than Ticketmaster Advanced. Ticketmaster is only a technology provider, and as such is providing ticket cancellation, distribution, posting, forwarding, authentication, delivery and payment processing services.

User Obligations

In exchange for your use of the Advanced Services, you agree: (a) to provide the Advanced Services with current, complete and accurate information about yourself ("Registration Data"), (b) to maintain and update your Registration Data as necessary to ensure that it remains current, complete and accurate; (c) not to use the Advanced Services for any illegal purpose; (d) not to impersonate any person or entity; (e) not to interfere with or disrupt networks connected to the Advanced Services or violate the regulations, policies or procedures of such networks; (f) not to attempt to gain unauthorised access to the Advanced Services, other accounts, computer systems or networks connected to the Advanced Services, through password mining or any other means; (g) not to engage in any other conduct which, in Ticketmaster's or the Ticketmaster Advanced's sole discretion, is considered unauthorised or objectionable; and (h) not to use the Advanced Services in connection with any commercial endeavors other than to the extent permitted by Ticketmaster or Ticketmaster Advanced.

Neither Ticketmaster nor the Ticketmaster Advanced shall be liable to you or any third party for any claim or cause of action arising out of the Ticketmaster Advanced's or Ticketmaster's exercise of the foregoing rights.

Your access to and use of the Advanced Services are at your own risk.

The information you provide to the Advanced Services shall be collected, used and disclosed in accordance with the Privacy Policies linked to from this sentence. Web sites linked to the Advanced Services that are not part of the Advanced Services are not subject to such Privacy Policy. You should refer to those sites' own privacy policies to learn how they collect, use and disclose information about you.

Ticketmaster, the Ticketmaster Advanced, their respective affiliates, successors, assignees and licensees, and each of the foregoing's respective officer, directors, employees and contractors (all such persons, including, but not limited to Ticketmaster, the "Released Parties") do not make any guarantee that any tickets posted will be purchased through the Advanced Services, or that any tickets forwarded or distributed will be accepted by the intended recipient. Termination; Suspension The Ticketmaster Advanced may, in its sole discretion, and Ticketmaster may, if authorised by the Ticketmaster Advanced, immediately terminate, suspend or restrict your right to use the Advanced Services at any time with or without cause, including without limitation if either finds that you have failed to comply with any provision of these Terms or if either believes, in its sole discretion, that you have in any way abused your right to use the Advanced Services. Neither Ticketmaster nor the Ticketmaster Advanced shall be liable to you or to any third party for any claim or cause of action arising out of such termination, restriction or suspension.

Ticketmaster's failure to exercise or enforce any right or provision of these Terms shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision unless acknowledged and agreed to by Ticketmaster in writing. The Ticketmaster Advanced's failure to exercise or enforce any right or provision of these Terms shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision unless acknowledged and agreed to by the Ticketmaster Advanced in writing. If a provision of these Terms is void or invalid under, or contravenes an, applicable law, then such provision shall be amended to the extent necessary to restore these Terms' validity, effect and compliance therewith.
